

I have enjoyed my time in the evenings with my family much more since the calls have stopped. I consider it an invasion of my privacy that these companys unsolicited. I have never, will never buy anything from them so why do they bother me? The Indiana law should stand as is for those that want the choice.